

July 31, 2022

Friends,

The “dog days” of summer are barking at us. In addition to the heat, COVID-19 nipped at our heels after celebrating my sister’s 50th wedding anniversary in Wisconsin. Recovery has taken a bite out of our late July schedule, but we are ready to go as August lunges around the corner. We hope you are well and ready for August too!

Dave is looking forward to another Uganda trip at the end of August. With the exceptional work of our partners, our training efforts are moving forward and yielding good results. We are well on our way to meeting our 2022 goal of 22 training events in Uganda.

In several recent updates, we included links to videos that describe aspects of our ministry in Uganda. Perhaps you viewed them already, or maybe you didn’t have time to do so. In the spirit of “Summer Reruns”, we include a video links attachment to encourage you to watch them again, or even for the first time. Feel free to share one of the links with a friend and introduce them to Partnerships. Whatever you do, we ask that your prayers continue to be offered for what God is doing.

Plans for 2023 are in the works. Those details will come your way as we move toward the end of the year. But for now, give thanks with us for all that God is doing in 2022. We are grateful for your partnership and ask that you continue to stand with us in prayer and support.

With thankful hearts,
Dave and Joyce
