

Thoughts from Dave – I like John Stott’s description of partner relationships. In his book entitled “One People”, Stott emphasized that Christ-followers have much in common. There is “something” we share in together (a common faith); there is “somehow” we work together (common service), and “somehow” we live together (a common life in Christ). It is this shared commitment, with our Ugandan brothers and sisters, that will keep us on the right track as we move through 2023. How are you experiencing this shared life in Christ? Let’s all make it a 2023 priority to put these common realities into practice as we serve Christ in the places where we live!

Keep Praying for Pastor Andrew Mwenge – Our last communication highlighted Andrew’s request for prayer as he underwent his recent surgery. In a post-surgery conversation, Andrew mentioned that the removal of the mass on his thigh impacted nerves on his leg and produced an uncomfortable amount of pain in his leg. The good news is that there is no sign of cancer. The harder news is that his Dr. ordered a “personal lockdown” for Andrew’s proper recovery from the invasive surgery. Andrew expresses his thanks for your prayers and for the generosity of people who provided financial support.

Emerging Leaders Development in Kasese February 20-24, 2023

Daudi Nkuggwa offers this description of last week’s trip to western Uganda: “A very active class with very interesting questions as we study Scriptures together. Good to see some young and emerging leaders eagerly searching and wanting to learn and understand God’s Word. Our Training of Trainers (TOT) alumni are doing a great job in teaching God’s Word.”
