

January 23, 2023

Good Morning Friends,

As we begin this 4th week of January, ministry activities are already in high gear. This week, our Ugandan partners are leading two seminars in Masaka, one for pastors and the other for emerging leaders. Masaka is the place where we began offering pastoral seminars in 2009. After 10 years in Masaka, additional regional seminar sites opened up across the country. This return is designed to reconnect and encourage pastors in their gospel ministry as well as check in with Masaka's emerging leader's group.

Then, beginning on January 30th, the new COHORT GROUP meets in Kampala to begin their 2023-2024 course work. This exciting new opportunity eventually will add 25 individuals to the already equipped teachers from our Training of Trainers project. Pray for our Ugandan partners as they embrace the COHORT sessions from January 30 – February 3.

Our hearts are thrilled by the work our Ugandan partners are doing. We were hoping to join them in January, but due to Dave's two minor health issues it was prudent to delay his trip until early March. Tickets already are purchased and he is ready to fly again soon. We believe his healing time offers further preparation for our partners increasing role in equipping pastors and emerging leaders. Please keep them in your prayers as they move through these upcoming weeks.

As promised, I am sending you a link to our 2022 Annual Report on our website. Click on <https://partnershipsfortraining.org/in-review/> and check out the opportunities that led to last year's ministry expansion along with several new ones that God is opening up for 2023.

Thank you for standing with us. Please pray that the Lord's presence and provision will be our steadfast anchor through the joys and challenges of a new year. That is our prayer for you as well!

With grateful hearts,
Dave and Joyce
